"KJS Design & Technology helped us keep the process moving forward at times when other projects diverted our attention away from next steps on the site and our flyers. We love the site; and the flyers have been a great way to get noticed around our area and get our name out there at local events!"

"Designing a website that captures the true essence of your company is not easy. KJS D&T was referred to us by a friend who raved about their attention to detail, so we had high expectations about their work. For the first time, in a long time, our expectations were not only met, but actually exceeded. We cannot tell enough people how pleased we are with the website they built for us. Their patience, customer service, insight and expertise made the entire process a pleasure."
